

Executive team

AGORA
LEARNING
PARTNERSHIP

Rebecca Daulman, Chief Executive Officer

Rebecca has enjoyed a broad range of roles and responsibilities in the education sector during her career which, to date, has spanned more than twenty years. She is passionate about working collaboratively with a range of stakeholders in order to provide the best possible learning opportunities and life experiences for children and young people so they can flourish and reach their full potential. As a result, in addition to two headships in outstanding schools, Rebecca has embraced many other exciting leadership opportunities, which have included working with amazing teams in order to set up and lead a cluster of Children's Centres, an Extended Education Support Service and a Teaching School. Throughout her career, Rebecca has also had the pleasure of offering school improvement support in a range of schools, including when working as a National Leader of Education.

Jayshree Shah, Chief Financial Officer

Jayshree is a Chartered Accountant with over 25 years' experience in the commercial and education sectors. She completed her accountancy training with Arthur Andersen and subsequently undertook a number of audit and finance roles at British Airways before moving into the not-for-profit sector. She worked with the Aldridge Foundation and its sponsored schools and most recently as the Director of Finance and Corporate Services at Ada National College for Digital Skills where she set up and ran the finance and operational aspects of a new further education college.